

©CAL 17336 C

THE BASHFUL LOVER. ✓

by: Ernest Truex.

It must be grand to be in love — so we're told and little Ernie was a fit subject for the Booby-hatch because he had a mercenary and merciless aunt who wished Ernie tied tightly in the matrimonial noose. Poor little Ernie — 110 ~~pounds~~ net is pitted against a heavy ponderous weight of 185 ~~pounds~~ weighted at the altar. But, for once, Aunt over rushed herself because in honor of the event, she invited to her home a bevy of nature dancers. One thing Ernie admired were nature dancers, even though he had to look at them through a thickly curtained window. Encouraged by several glances from the most beautiful maid, the glances led to speech and with the speech came the love which burst over Ernie like sunshine. Little did he think the heavy weight champion sweetheart was encumbered with at that opportuned time — NEVER A THOUGHT. But Ernie was a quick worker, and before you could say Jack Robinson, he had bulldozed the minister into marrying him to the dancer, when the same minister was the one who was to marry him to the heavy weight aforesaid mentioned.

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, 1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress